COMMISSION IMPLEMENTING DECISION

of 22.10.2014

amending Implementing Decision C(2011)5500 final, as regards the title and the list of supporting documents to be presented by visa applicants in China

(Only the Bulgarian, Croatian, Czech, Dutch, Estonian, Finnish, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Maltese, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Slovak, Slovenian, Spanish and Swedish text are authentic)

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Regulation (EC) No 810/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 July 2009 establishing a Community Code on Visas (Visa Code), and in particular Article 48(1)¹,

Whereas:

- (1) Regulation (EC) No 810/2009 lays down the Union rules for the issuing of visas for transit through or intended stays in the territory of Member States not exceeding 90 days in any 180 days period.
- (2) In order to ensure harmonised application of the common visa policy, Regulation (EC) No 810/2009 established that within local Schengen cooperation the need to complete and harmonise the lists of supporting documents should be assessed in each jurisdiction in order to take account of local circumstances.
- (3) The local Schengen cooperation in China has confirmed the need to harmonise the list of supporting documents and have accordingly drawn up a list which is set out in Commission Implementing Decision C(2011)5500 final ².
- (4) Further to a renewed assessment taking into account local circumstances, the local Schengen cooperation has confirmed the need for revising the list of supporting documents to be submitted by visa applicants in China to take account of the experience gained and recognizing the relative value as supporting documents of online bookings of flight and hotel accommodation for certain categories of applicants and with a view to facilitating the procedure for both applicants and consulates.
- (5) The title of the Implementing Decision C(2011)5500 final refers to the cities where the consulates are located in the third countries concerned. As new consulates were opened in other cities in China, the title is no more accurate. As also in the future new consulates may be opened in yet other locations, it is appropriate to delete the references to the cities from the title of that Decision.

² Commission Implementing Decision C(2011)5500 final of 4.8.2011 establishing the list of supporting documents to be presented by visa applicants in China (in Beijing, Guangzhou, Chengdu, Shanghai and Wuhan), Saudi Arabia, Indonesia and Vietnam (in Hanoi and Ho-Chi Minh City) http://ec.europa.eu/dgs/home-affairs/e-library/docs/pdf/1_en_act_part1_v4_en.pdf#zoom=100

- (6) In individual cases it should still be possible for consulates to waive the requirement to submit one or more of the listed supporting documents in the case of applicants known to them for their integrity and reliability in accordance with Article 14(6) of Regulation (EC) No 810/2009 or, in justified cases, during the examination of an application, to request additional documents, in accordance with Article 21(8) of Regulation (EC) No 810/2009.
- (7) Given that the waiving of the requirement for visa applicants in China wishing to travel for specific purposes to present reservation of return or round ticket and proof of accommodation is a deviation from usual practice, the impact and implementation of that aspect of this Decision, in particular as regards abuse or refusal of entry, should be monitored in order to establish whether the waiving of these requirements should be terminated or should also be applied in other locations and for all or only some purposes of travel.
- (8) Given that Regulation (EC) No 810/2009 builds upon the Schengen acquis, Denmark, in accordance with Article 5 of the Protocol on the position of Denmark annexed to the Treaty on European Union and to the Treaty establishing the European Community and Article 4 of Protocol (No 22) on the position of Denmark, annexed to the Treaty on the European Union and to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, decided to implement Regulation (EC) No 810/2009 in its national law. Denmark is therefore bound under international law to implement this Decision.
- (9) This Decision constitutes a development of provisions of the Schengen acquis in which the United Kingdom does not take part, in accordance with Council Decision 2000/365/EC³. The United Kingdom is therefore not taking part in its adoption and is not bound by it or subject to its application. This Decision should therefore not be addressed to the United Kingdom.
- (10) This Decision constitutes a development of provisions of the Schengen acquis in which Ireland does not take part, in accordance with Council Decision 2002/192/EC⁴. Ireland is therefore not taking part in its adoption and is not bound by it or subject to its application. This Decision should therefore not be addressed to Ireland.
- (11) As regards Iceland and Norway, this Decision constitutes a development of provisions of the Schengen acquis within the meaning of the Agreement concluded by the Council of the European Union and the Republic of Iceland and the Kingdom of Norway concerning the association of those two States with the implementation, application and development of the Schengen acquis, which fall within the area referred to in Article 1, point B of Council Decision 1999/437/EC⁵.
- (12) As regards Switzerland, this Decision constitutes a development of the provisions of the Schengen acquis within the meaning of the Agreement between the European
